

Dear Nadia Denton,

The 'School Friedl Kubelka for Independent Film' is an artists' initiative for the promotion of aspiring filmmakers and for artistic exchange and teaching by national and international film artists.

Founded in 2006 by Friedl Kubelka and directed by Philipp Fleischmann since 2014, the program is based on Dante's quote "where the intended must be". A passionate interest in a topic and its realisation on (analog) film is what matters. The aim of a school year is to create independent film works and to gain your own position, way of working and understanding of film.

The school would be delighted to invite you to give a talk as part of this year's program to talk about your personal approach to cinema and your curatorial work on Nollywood. [REDACTED]

We very much hope you will accept our invitation and look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Philipp Fleischmann
Artistic director